

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Midcoast Senior College announces Spring 2019 term

Brunswick, Maine—January 23, 2019 – Located at Brunswick Landing, Midcoast Senior College will present a Spring term with 23 courses representing a wide range of subjects including literature, music, art, humanities, anthropology, political science and more. Registration will open on Friday, January 28 and continue until the term begins on March 11.

Most of the Spring classes will meet at the College's location at 29 Burbank Ave., in Cook's Corner on Brunswick Landing. MSC will also offer classes at Thornton Oaks, The Highlands, and UMA Center (also at Brunswick Landing). The popular MSC Singers class will meet at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Brunswick. Complete details about the courses can be learned by visiting the website, midcoastseniorcollege.org. Registration is on-line.

MSC is also presenting a free lecture series called Winter Wisdom, sponsored by The Highlands in Topsham. Winter Wisdom is held at Curtis Memorial Library on Wednesdays in January and February at 12:15 p.m. All are invited to attend. In addition, MSC hosts a free, weekly Current Events Forum at Curtis Memorial Library on Thursdays at 12:15, which is open to all. No registration is required for the Winter Wisdom or Current Events Forum; simply show up!

Midcoast Senior College's mission is to provide non-credit academic courses and other educational events for people of 50 years and older to continue their lifelong learning. Midcoast Maine residents. MSC also maintains an active website (midcoastseniorcollege.org).

Contact:

Donna Marshall
msoffice@midcoastseniorcollege.org
29 Burbank Ave.
Brunswick, ME 04011
Ph: (207) 725-4900

###